Vaccine Incentive Initiative: Playing a Part and Paying it Forward

The Vaccine Incentive Initiative at ILCKC sprouted from the need to increase vaccination numbers in Kern County. Because ILCKC serves individuals with disabilities who reside in Kern county and seeing that vaccination rates were low, our consumers and those living with a disability in Kern County became the target audience. 49 individuals living with a disability in Kern have been vaccinated or received their "booster" this year—they were encouraged by the Vaccine Incentive Initiative to do their part in being vaccinated.

Mr. Webster, a U.S. veteran and an older individual with a disability, became fully vaccinated and is proud that he can pay it forward. He shared a story with his ILCKC case manager about the use of his vaccine incentive gift card. At first, Mr. Webster jokingly stated that the gift card he earned "was laying in the dresser drawer, taking up space." Then, he decided to use the $50 gift card to assist a new mom who is independently taking care of her 20-month old baby. Happy to use his vaccine incentive to help a family friend, Mr. Webster did more than good by doing his part in being fully vaccinated against COVID-19; Mr. Webster played his part and payed it forward!

Kern County Aging and Disability Resource Connection (KC-ADRC)

As more people search for Long-Term Services and Supports (LTSS) to find aging and disability-related resources, California Department of Aging has organized local agencies across California into Aging and Disability Resource Connections (ADRCs). ADRCs are coordinated networks that work to improve service delivery and help older adults, people with disabilities and caregivers navigate the complex LTSS system.

The KC-ADRC is a partnership of Kern County Aging and Adult Services and the Independent Living Center of Kem County (ILCKC) to help Kern County residents find aging and disability-related resources to help improve their lives.

Organizations and agencies that provide services for aging or disability populations in Kern County can register at no cost to be listed as KC-ADRC service providers by calling (661) 325-1063 or emailing ADRC@ilcofkerncounty.org
